2. Analysis
Today, we are going to discuss the Online Platforms ICT Content Development. Online Platforms that you use in ICT Content Development such as Social media and Blogging Platforms. The first one is Social media Platforms. Kindly read. Student G.

Social media, Websites like Facebook
Ok! Thank you. In your own words, How can you define Social media Platforms?

Very good! (The teacher will give reward) Social media Platforms is the collective of online communications channels dedicated to community-based input, interaction, content-sharing and collaboration. Is that clear?

Yes Ma’am

Blogg...
Word press? Do you have any idea?
Yes Student J

Ma’am WordPress is a free blogging platform.

Very good! (The teacher will give reward)
One of the most popular blogging platforms is a Word press, wherein it allows you to create your blogs for free.

First, open your web browser and type on the address bar the word www.wordpress.com then hit the enter button.

Again, what is www?
Yes Student P

Second, you can create your BlogSpot by clicking the “Start Blog” button.

What does the word template means?
Yes Student K

Template is a form, mold, or pattern used as a guide to making something.

What is theme?
Yes student L

Theme is the subject composition or

Sixth, fill the form with the required information such legitimate email address, your desired username and password.

Seventh step, you already have your account, and all you have to do is customize your site. So after clicking the “Site Title”. And after you customize it, you need to click the “SAVE” button for your site to be more interesting.

As a future teacher, do you think these Platforms can help the student in learning process?

Yes Student M

Very good! (The teacher will give reward)

Yes of course, students can share their content in the following Platforms given. They can use this platform in sharing their presentations with their classmates and teacher.
Are you ready to know the steps in creating a blog?

But before that, what is blog?

Yes Student Z

Very Good! (The teacher will give reward)

We finish to create a BlogSpot now the next that we are going to do is to create a blog.

Why blogs is considered as an online journal?

Yes Student J

Very well said Student J (the teacher give reward)

First step to create a blog, click the “WRITE” button on the upper right.

Second step, you have now a freehand whatever you want to write on your blog. You need to indicate your chosen title you can also customized whether it is Italicize, Bold or so whatever. It’s depends on you and after that write a description about your chosen title and now you can publish it by pressing “PUBLISH”
Third step, after you publish your first blog, you can preview it if you want by clicking the “PREVIEW” button or edit its content any time.

Do I make myself clear?
Yes Ma’am

Did everyone understand the steps/procedure?
Yes Ma’am

That’s great! I hope everyone learned a lot today.

3. Abstraction
   Before we start our activity today, I put some invitation letter under your chairs. So, I want you to find the invitation letter underneath your chair then read the question aloud and answer.

   Okay class who among you got an invitation letter.

   Who got the first question? Please read the question and discuss your answer.

   Very well said! Student K (The teacher give reward) Who got the second question? Please read and discuss your answer.

   First question: Differentiate a blog, BlogSpot, blogging and blogger. (The students will discuss his/her answer)

   Second question: Which platform is superior? Why? (The students will discuss his/her
Very good! Student M (The teacher give reward)
Let us have a last question.
Student L

Excellent! Student L (The teacher give reward)

4. Application
Now we are all done on our discussion let’s move on to our next activity. For your next activity you are going to create a blog. Same group. For the Group 1 you are going to make a Poem about Social media and create your own title and for the Group 2 you are going to make a Jingle about BlogSpot and of course with title. I will give you 3 minutes to finish your work. Is that clear?

But before we start, here is the criteria:
